stars develops better „Leaders of the Next Generation” and wants to be the premier platform for these future leaders. Symposia in Switzerland, Singapore and China, study tours and alumni chapter meetings are the major activities of stars. For more information about stars visit www.the-stars.ch.

To support the management team at our office in the heart of Frauenfeld, Switzerland, we are looking for an

Project Manager (100 %)

to start immediately or by agreement

Your responsibilities:
- Contribution to the programme development of symposia, study tours and alumni chapters.
- Operational preparation and management of the stars activities.

Your profile:
- Recent graduate (Master of Arts in International Relations, Master of Arts in Economics or similar), with an interest in international political, economic and scientific developments
- Experience in project management an asset
- Professional written and oral language skills in English and German
- Excellent IT skills (MS Office, CRM and CMS programmes)
- Professional, self-directed and initiative person, team player
- Willingness to travel (approx. 3-5 weeks / year)

Please send your CV, documentation and references to Dr. Toni Schönenberger, Executive Chairman stars, toni.schoenenberger@the-stars.ch, asap, but no later than 30 April 2017.