At InterNations, we're dedicated to making expat life a great experience! With 2.6 million members in 390 cities around the world, regular local events, interest-based groups and useful information, InterNations is the biggest global network for people who live and work abroad. What started as an idea almost ten years ago is now changing the lives of expats and global minds around the world each and every day. With a team representing more than 30 countries, we believe in the benefits of international experience, cultural exchange, and the power of bringing people together. Together, we're constantly growing and learning, coming up with new ways for our members to feel more at home, meet other international people, and enjoy their stay abroad.

Social Media Mandatory Internship (m/f)

About the role
Are you a student looking to get work experience in the field of social media? We are currently offering an internship in our Content & Communications Department here at InterNations, which will provide you with the opportunity to gain insights into the daily work of a social media manager. You will play an important part in maintaining the high quality of our social media posts, interacting with fans and followers and in assisting with new campaigns and projects.

So if you enjoy online research and writing, have very good written English skills and would like to work in an international team, we would love to hear from you!

As a Social Media Intern at InterNations, you will be responsible for:
- calendar management
- searching for relevant content for all channels
- daily monitoring of social media channels
- engagement with our international and well-educated audience
- inter-departmental projects, e.g. launching Instagram

You meet the following requirements:
- university student
- the internship is a compulsory part of your course of studies
- availability for 6-12 months starting in July 2017
- native-speaker level written and spoken English
- fine attention to detail
- ability to work on multiple projects at once
- interest (and ideally experience) in social media

We offer:
- a fast-growing, dynamic company with an international team
- a friendly work atmosphere and the space you need to pursue your own ideas
- regular workshops and lectures about work-related topics and soft skills
- independent projects and training sessions for interns
- a "cosmopolitan city with a heart" and the nicest beer gardens in Germany
- weekly team breakfasts, fresh fruit & regular team events

Are you the right one for the job?
Then send us your application today (CV, cover letter, start date) c/o Christa Fellner to:
