Seminar Description: Economics of Inequality

Lecturer: Dr. Holger Lüthen

This seminar discusses multiple aspects of economic inequality. Session 1 covers a brief overview on chosen topics of economic inequality. Thereafter, I shortly present selected literature strands. Within one week after Session 1, students may choose on of these strands of a strand of their own choosing as long as it falls into the realm of economic inequality. In January, there will be a presentation of the students' work (joint with a discussion). Finally, the paper is to be submitted in February.
